

launch of the

Homelessness Photography Exhibition

*Supported by The Worshipful the Mayor of the Royal Borough of Kingston upon Thames,
Councillor Julie Pickering*

Monday 30th April 2018

Open between 1.30pm and 3pm

United Reformed Church
Richard Mayo Hall
Eden Street
Kingston, KT1 1HZ

Everybody welcome!

A number of the guests that stayed in the Kingston Winter Night Shelter and at The Haven have contributed to the exhibition and hopefully some of them will be able to attend. After the launch, the photos will be displayed in the window area of KURC until the end of the week. On Saturday 12th May, there will be another opportunity to view the photos when they will be displayed in Eden Walk.

Local Elections 3rd May

There will be a hustings meeting on Thursday 26th April 1pm, All Saints' Church - A chance to meet, hear and question RBK party leaders. All questions in advance to Leslie Packer: tel: 020 8549 1960 or email: lgpacker1234@gmail.com

What's on...?

Monday 23rd April

- 11am BBC Radio4 – Inherited Fear. How trauma that we have not experienced directly can shape us.
- 4.30pm BBC Radio4 – Beyond Belief. Sacred spaces.

Sunday 29th April 5.30pm, St Luke's Church, Gibbon Road, KT2 6AD – Songs in Springtime. Concert by Canbury Singers and the South London Military Wives Choir. Tickets £3- £10 at the door.