

The back page... Sunday, 3rd September 2017

September Specials...

Friday 15th - Sunday 17th September,
Dunford House,
Sussex - Church
weekend. Great fun and food awaits
you!

See: www.dunfordhouse.org.uk There are still a few places available. Please collect a form at the back of the sanctuary and return it to Catherine Treweek when completed. Many thanks.

Saturday 16th September, 12 noon - 4pm, Kingston Market Place – Full Moon Festival celebrating Korean culture.

Saturday 23rd September

- 9.30am-3pm - Richmond-Kew riverside walk. The walk (6.5 miles) is in aid of Christian Aid. Please take part if you can. There are lots of sponsors waiting to support you! Contact: Sue Watts or Vaughan James of 'Circle the City' fame.
- 10am-3pm New Malden URC - Bring your 'Fabric, Food and Flowers' of many colours and share their story. All welcome!
- 10am-3pm - Kingston URC - Rehearsals for 'Joseph and the Amazing Technicolour Dreamcoat' with a performance at 4.30pm. Please come along to perform or be in the audience!

Waitrose Green Tokens ~ The Kingston store is currently collecting green tokens for the work of Street Pastors. Please remember to pick up tokens at the checkout and post them in the box by the escalator. Many thanks!

What else is on...?

Tomorrow, Monday, 4th September

- 9.45am (Mon-Fri) BBC Radio4 – Book of the Week. Every Third Thought. How do we approach and accept death?
- 1.45pm (Mon-Fri) BBC Radio4 – Streets Apart. A history of social housing.
- 4.30pm BBC Radio4 – Beyond Belief. William Blake's Jerusalem.
- 8pm Vitriolic. Complex issues behind acid attacks.

Tuesday 5th September 8pm BBC Radio4 – In Sickness and Social Care. Meeting the needs of an ageing population.

Wednesday 6th September 9pm BBC Radio4 – Costing the Earth. The effects of mass tourism on the environment.